

10th AAMDC Command Chief Warrant Officer (CCWO)
Chief Warrant Officer 5 David V. Jones

CW5 David V. Jones is a native of Houston, Texas. He entered the Army on 18 June 1992. He attended Basic Training at Fort Jackson, South Carolina and Advanced Individual Training at Fort Bliss, Texas.

After graduating AIT, he was assigned to 2-7 ADA where he served as a Patriot Crewmember during two deployments to CENTCOM. Additionally, while serving in 2-7 ADA he deployed to Kunsan, Korea; as part of the first ever Patriot deployment to Korea. Eight months after returning to home station, he deployed and served as a section chief in 1-43 ADA at Suwon, Korea and graduated PLDC. He served as an Instructor, Platoon Sergeant and the Academics Branch Chief for 3-6 ADA relative to 14E and 14T AIT and completed BNCOB. Throughout the duration of his service as a Non-Commissioned Officer, CW5 Jones was awarded PLDC Commandant's List, BNCOB Commandant's List, Fort Bliss Instructor of the Year in 1997 and earned membership into esteemed Sergeant Audie Murphy Club in 1998.

Following this assignment, he applied and was accepted for ADA Warrant Officer MOS 140E. After being awarded the Leadership Award and Honor Graduate of WOCS in 1999, he graduated WOBC in 2000, and was assigned to 1-1 ADA as the Battery AMD Tac/Tech where he deployed in support OIF/OEF. He served as 6-52 ADA BN BMO and Standardization Officer; prior to 31st BDE Standardization Officer. He has been awarded the USAREUR General Douglas McArthur Leadership Award, his maintenance program received numerous accolades including winning the Army Award for Maintenance Excellence (AAME) for both U.S. (V) Corps and USAREUR on two separate occasions. He garnered the title of Distinguished Honor Graduate of the coveted Patriot Top Gun Course and his WOAC course. He served as the OIC for the inaugural 31st BDE Joint Kill Chain Exercise (JKCE) and Patriot Live Fire Exercise of 6-52 ADA from Fort Sill, OK., more than five Mission Readiness Exercises (MREs), and over fifteen Standard Patriot Exercise Assessment Readiness (SPEARs) resulting in voluminous opportunities to train, coach, teach, mentor and advise thousands of ADA Soldiers and Leaders. He was awarded Commandant's List during WO-ILE course in 2013 and graduated from Warrant Officer Senior Service Education Course in 2014.

CW5 Jones' previous assignment was as the first U.S. Army Air Defense Artillery School Proponent Warrant Officer at Fort Sill, Oklahoma. He implemented a deluge of previously non-existent programs facilitating success for ADA and Army Warrant Officers holistically including PME college transferable credit programs, establishment of ASI T2 (JICO), while serving as a member of the Army Senior Warrant Officer Council (ASWOC) at HQDA, Pentagon.

He earned a Master's of Business Degree (concentration in Project Management) with Magna Cum Laude honors. His awards include the Meritorious Service Medal (with 2 OLC), Army Commendation Medal (with 3 OLC), Army Achievement Medal (with 1 SLC and 1 OLC), and numerous other campaign, service, and foreign awards.